

Resources for Students affected by COVID-19

Updated Monday, March 23, 2020, 12:00 p.m. ET

IMBC cares about our students and staff. Now it is more important than ever that we support one another to ensure success. We are open for remote learning! All students are being supported by our staff and faculty! Need help? Give us a call!

The Institute of Medical and Business Careers (IMBC) is committed to acting in our students' best interests in all matters of health, safety, and education. For questions regarding your program or available resources for you to successfully complete your program, please contact Dr. Melissa Kaulbach, IMBC's Chief Academic Officer. You may call the school's main line at 855.773.0758 or email melissa.kaulbach@imbc.edu.

- List of local United Way organizations (these organizations help with localized relief in your community and may have additional resources for you to leverage).
- T-Mobile and Mint Mobile announced they are providing free data plans
- Spectrum is offering free Wi-Fi to college students
- Comcast and Xfinity are offering students free internet access.
- Monitor health warnings from the CDC, for the most up to date information.,
- Contact the IMBC financial aid department to see if you qualify and have any extra funds available to help cover expenses supporting your distance learning, including laptops and living expenses.
- If you have lost your ability to access a computer (since libraries have closed) or access to WiFi, IMBC can help you submit discussions and assignments. Email Casey Noble from your smartphone.